Item 1. Security and Issuer

This constitutes Amendment No. 1 to the Statement on Schedule 13D, dated February 23, 2001, relating to shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, and shares of Series A preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Audible, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Company"), with its principal office located at 65 Willowbrook Blvd., Wayne, NJ 07470.

Item 2. Identity and Background

This statement is filed on behalf of Microsoft Corporation, a Washington corporation ("Microsoft"), with its principal offices located at One Microsoft Way, Redmond, Washington 98052-6399. Microsoft holds no shares of Audible Series A preferred stock. Microsoft develops, manufactures, licenses, and supports a wide range of software products for a multitude of computing devices. Microsoft's online efforts include MSN™ network of Internet products and services and alliances with companies involved with broadband access and various forms of digital interactivity. Microsoft also licenses consumer software programs; sells hardware devices; provides consulting services; trains and certifies system integrators; and researches and develops advanced technologies for future software products. During the past five years, Microsoft has neither been convicted in a criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations and similar misdemeanors), nor has it been subject to a judgment, decree, or final order in a civil proceeding enjoining future violations of, or prohibiting or mandating activities subject to, federal or state securities laws or finding any violation with respect to such laws.

Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

In December 1998, prior to Audible's initial public offering, Microsoft acquired 1,250,000 shares of Audible Series D preferred stock at a price of $4.00 per share for an aggregate purchase price of $5,000,000, which amount was funded by Microsoft's working capital. In April 1999, Audible issued to Microsoft a warrant to purchase 100,000 shares of common stock at a price per share equal to the price to the public of Audible common stock in Audible's initial public offering ($9.00 per share). This warrant may be exercised until November 18, 2003. Upon Audible's initial public offering on July 15, 1999, all of Audible's preferred stock converted into common stock and the 1,250,000 shares of Audible Series D preferred stock held by Microsoft became 1,875,000 shares of Audible common stock, par value $0.01 per share, on a basis of three shares of Audible common stock for every two shares of Audible Series D preferred stock.

On February 8, 2001, Microsoft entered into an agreement with Audible to acquire 2,666,666 shares of Audible Series A convertible preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share, at a price of $3.75 per share for an aggregate purchase price of $9,999,997.50, which amount was funded by Microsoft's working capital. The price per share was based on the closing price of Audible common stock on February 7, 2001 (a fifty percent (50%) premium was added to this closing price, which was then multiplied by four (4) for the purchase price per share of the Series A convertible preferred stock). The sale of shares to Microsoft under this agreement closed February 23, 2001.

On August 1, 2003, Microsoft entered into an agreement with Apax Excelsior VI-B C.V., Patricof Private Investment Club III, L.P., Apax Excelsior VI, L.P., and Apax Excelsior VI-A C.V. (collectively, "Apax") for the acquisition by Apax from Microsoft of 3,473,967 shares of Audible Series A convertible preferred stock, and all accrued but unpaid dividends of shares thereon (constituting 100% of the Audible Series A convertible preferred stock held by Microsoft). The sale of shares to Apax under this agreement was effective on August 4, 2003.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

Microsoft's acquisitions of Audible shares have been made for investment purposes. Depending on future evaluations of the business prospects of Audible and other factors, including, but not limited to, general economic and business conditions, Microsoft may retain or, from time to time, increase its holdings or dispose of all or a portion of its holdings, subject to any applicable legal and contracted restrictions on its ability to do so. Microsoft has no present plan or intention that would result in or relate to any of the transactions in subparagraphs (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D.
