Share Purchase and Exchange Offer regarding Navision a/s—Permission from the Danish Tax Authorities is unconditional

On 17 June 2002, the Danish tax authorities issued permission that the contemplated exchange of Navision shares against Microsoft shares under the share purchase and exchange offer by Microsoft on Navision shareholders be exempt from tax in accordance with an amendment to the Danish Act on Taxation of Capital Gains on Shares. The permission was subject to the condition that Microsoft had not received binding and irrevocable acceptances for 90 per cent or more of the Navision shares before 1 July 2002 (the date where the amendment took effect).

Microsoft has today received confirmation from the Danish tax authorities that this condition has been fulfilled. As a consequence, the permission is now unconditional. Accordingly, Navision shareholders accepting the share purchase and exchange offer who elect Microsoft shares for their Navision shares, will be entitled to carry out the share exchange free of Danish tax as described in the Offer Document and in the Explanatory Leaflet published through the Copenhagen Stock Exchange and sent to registered shareholders in Navision on 13 May and 25 June 2002 respectively.

Both documents can be requested at Danske Bank A/S, Corporate Actions, telephone +45 43 39 49 69.

For the sake of good order, it is stressed that Navision shareholders who elect cash consideration for their Navision shares (and any cash payment instead of fractional Microsoft shares to the extent that the number of Navision shares tendered does not correspond to a whole number of Microsoft shares) will be taxed as described in the Offer Document.

Yours sincerely,

Microsoft Corporation
